

REFLECTION

Friday

Being a peacemaker takes more courage and strength than being a troublemaker.

Scolding is easier than praying.

To hate, easier than to love.

To distance, easier than to actively make peace.

Willem Nicol said: "Our peace-task is a life-task."

1. Reflect on your day. Where did you experience the Holy Spirit as a peacemaker today?

2. What does it mean for you to live as a peacemaker with Him?

3. Ask for the Holy Spirit's peace in the circumstances in your life that leave you with discontent.
